PRESS RELEASE: Edward E. Kramer, Filing in Gwinnett County Superior Court

Ed Kramer has steadfastly maintained his innocence since his arrest in August of 2000. He received two traumatic brain injuries in the months that followed, under the guise of Gwinnett's protective services, and was disabled for life. Over the course of fourteen years, Mr. Kramer has faced relentless vilification and consistently demanded a trial by jury to demonstrate his innocence. All Mr. Kramer requested was that he be provided accommodations for his severe disabilities so he could be present at his own trial. Denied at every turn, Mr. Kramer was forced to enter a guilty plea in December of 2013 or face a trial in his absence. With his filing today and those forthcoming, Mr. Kramer seeks to challenge his non-voluntary guilty plea and ultimately regain the life and livelihood unjustly taken.
